DIARY NOTES

25X1A

ADD/A

6 March 1953

1. Reviewed Bill Peel's Evaluation Report with him and, at the same time, asked him to continue to handle the administrative affairs for the Jackson Committee, which he gladly agreed to do.

2. Ed Saunders reported that inasmuch as Mr. Macy had indicated during their conversation yesterday that he did not understand why we might need additional space, he (Saunders) thought it inappropriate to pursue the subject of air conditioning the new space which we are acquiring. It will, therefore, probably be necessary for Mr. Dulles to discuss this matter with Mr. Dodge at the time that our revised budget is considered.

3. [REDACTED] telephoned to express his appreciation for the new arrangements that are being made to have a contracting officer and a lawyer devote their time to TSS problems.

4. Arranged to have representatives of the Personnel Office and the Comptroller's Office go to Room 3087, Old State Department Building, at 10:00 a.m. on Monday morning for the purpose of signing on [REDACTED] as a consultant, making his travel arrangements, etc.

6. Walter Pforzheimer said that during a discussion which he had recently with the Legislative Liaison Officer of the Air Force the latter stated that he believed it would be necessary for General Cabell to be confirmed as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence. I think that General Cabell has this point in mind also; consequently, I instructed Mr. Pforzheimer to explore the matter fully so that we will be prepared to give General Cabell and Mr. Dulles correct answers if they should make inquiries.

10. The Assistant Director (Communications) was informed by a memorandum from the DD/A that the claim for reimbursement submitted by his Office in connection with [REDACTED] is denied due to the fact that conditions under which the claimed losses were incurred are not peculiar to the operations of the Central Intelligence Agency.
